Fictional lender instruction letter | October 7, 2026

Lender: Summit Residential Finance, fictional. Borrower Alex Chen. Security address 18 Alder Lane, DEMO-PIN-001. Authorized advance CAD 500,000. Purchase price CAD 700,000. Authorized completion date October 15, 2026.

For this exercise, the lender instructs counsel to report any retained tenancy, non-owner-occupied use, legal-description discrepancy, private financing, unresolved registered claim, or change to completion before requesting the advance. No automatic approval is given by this letter.

The approved application describes a single dwelling occupied by the borrower on completion, vacant possession, and no retained tenants. The letter does not authorize reliance on an unsigned completion amendment.

The lender requires counsel to report how Cedar Bank DEMO-CH-100, Birch DEMO-CH-220 and any other revealed interests will be addressed. Do not treat a payout amount, creditor undertaking or an unrelated discharge as proof that an interest has been removed.

Supplementary instruction and proposed funds ledger | October 12, 2026

Summit instructions desk message SR-204: No approval of tenancy, delayed occupancy, additional security parcels or a completion-date change has been issued as of this message. Please supply the executed purchase amendment and current intended-use statement for consideration.

Proposed ledger AL-F1 lists buyer funds CAD 205,000 plus lender funds CAD 500,000. It labels CAD 700,000 as price and CAD 5,000 as estimated costs, but does not show how the CAD 35,000 deposit already held will be credited or returned. Ledger marked DRAFT - NOT RECONCILED.

An attached broker worksheet describes requested loan CAD 515,000. It is marked proposal, not lender authorization. There is no replacement instruction raising the authorized CAD 500,000 advance.

Demonstration contractual instructions only. These are invented conditions for this file, not statements of Ontario law, FCT requirements or any real lender policy.
